

PRESENTATION

Name : Enzo

Surname : Cocca

Status/position: Phd candidate and Research fellow

Professional address: Università di Napoli L'Orientale, Dipartimento di Africa Asia e Mediterraneo, Piazza S. Domenico Maggiore, Palazzo Corigliano, Napoli

Country: Italy

Phone number : +393495087014

e-mail: enzo.ccc@gmail.com

RESEARCH

Enzo Cocca graduated in African Prehistoric Ethnography at the University of Rome La Sapienza with a thesis on the Kiffian and Tenerian lithic complex of Niger. Since 2010 he is PhD student in Science and Technology for Archaeology and Cultural Heritage at the University of Ferrara, also conducting applied research at the Centre of Geotechnology of the University of Siena.

Enzo is currently research fellow in the Department of Asia, Africa and the Mediterranean of the University of Naples "L'Orientale", his research focuses on the new technology applied to archaeology, he is involved in several archaeological excavation project in Asia and Africa.

Enzo is in charge of the Fumane Cave GIS, he is digitalising and organising in a database 20 years of archaeological activities, as part of his PhD thesis.